

Baja class action settlement agreement finalized

Vancouver, November 9, 2015 – Baja Mining Corp. (“Baja” or the “Company”) (TSX-V: BAJ - OTC: BAJFF) is pleased to report that further to its news release on October 6, 2015 announcing settlement of the Donohue class action litigation (the “Action”), a final settlement agreement has been executed by all parties (the “Settlement”). The Settlement remains subject to the approval of the Ontario Superior Court as described below. The Settlement is made without any admission of liability and the parties have agreed to a settlement amount of CDN $11,000,000.00, inclusive of administration and legal cost of the class, and any other costs or expenses related to the Action or the Settlement. The settlement amount will be covered by Baja’s insurers.

The parties have agreed to use their best efforts to effect this Settlement and to promptly secure Court approval and a complete and final dismissal with prejudice of the Action as against the defendants.

“The final resolution of this litigation will remove a heavy burden that Baja has carried for the past three and a half years” stated Tom Ogryzlo, Interim CEO. “This settlement will enable Baja to seek much broader opportunities for creating value for its shareholders.”
